Authorization for Credit Card Use:

- 1. Prior to engaging into this contract, you will find on the final page a "Credit Card Authorization" form. This contract will not be accepted if this information is not filled in or provided.
2. This form protects BW Unlimited Charity Fundraising from theft of items or destroyed items as well as payment enforcement for items which have not been paid for. Only the costs of the above described items will be charged along with late fees associated with late payment.
3. Once payment is received within the guidelines detailed above, the form will be destroyed (Shredded) and this credit card information will not be given out, sold etc. to anyone for any purpose - it is confidential.
4. For your protection, you can call BW Unlimited Charity Fundraising and provide the information over the phone to further protect the information. Our phone number is 443-206-6121.
5. If payment is not received within the guidelines, the credit card will be charged. If in section #7 above, you have not advised that there would be a delay of payment, the guidelines for this contract will be strictly adhered to.
6. NOTE: The Credit Card Authorization form only applies to events which the BW Unlimited Staff is not present for.

A. Shipping & Receiving of Items / Charity Travel Packages:

- 1. When receiving the items which are sent to you or your organization, please adhere to the following requests:
a. Inspection of items shipped: Upon receipt of BWUCF items and/or merchandise, the Client will inspect the shipment for accuracy and/or any damage that occurred during shipment. The Client will notify the BWUCF Representative immediately regarding any damages or discrepancies with the order. If the Client does not notify the BWUCF representative of any damage, the Client will be held accountable for the items. The Client must retain the packing materials for return of unsold BWUCF merchandise.
b. Wrapped Merchandise: Framed items are wrapped to protect the frames from damage. Please do not unwrap the plastic wrap on the remove the corner protectors for any reason unless your charity plans to purchase the items, the wrap and protectors protect it. If the frame is unwrapped and the frame is damaged upon return to BWUCF, refer to the "Merchandise Responsibility" section of this agreement.

c. Shipping Boxes & Packaging: Please maintain the shipping boxes and packaging materials for return of any unsold items. Items should be returned in the same packaging methods as they shipped to you. Initials _____

8. Multiples Available: BWUCF authorizes clients to offer multiple sales of the same items. The items which are offered for multiples sales are marked in the list provided below (Section B). With this ability, our charity clients can reap the rewards while offering a many of our items to as many bidders as you have - typically these are our Decorative items and Charity Travel Packages only. We advise our clients to offer the high bidders the same items at the highest bid. This ability will allow charities to sell many items and receive several times the amount of profit for only one item shown. All we need is a shipping name and address and BWUCF will ship the items directly to them after we receive payment on the initial invoice. Client is responsible for shipping charges of multiple sold items. Initials _____

9. Merchandise Responsibility: The Client agrees to take full responsibility for the items listed below (Section B) after receipt and upon signing this contract, all terms and conditions of this contract do apply. The Client is responsible for safeguarding all of items from time of receipt until unsold items are shipped back to BWUCF. Any damaged, lost or stolen items are the responsibility of the Client. If the items are received by BWUCF and they are damaged in anyway, BWUCF will forward photos of the damage items along with an invoice for said item(s). The Client will be responsible for payment for any unreturned or damaged items.

NOTE: All Certificates of Authenticity's must be returned to BWUCF with the merchandise or a fee of $50 per COA will be charged. Initials _____

10. Client Profits: The Client is entitled to retain 100% of the profit from proceeds realized above and beyond the BWUCF Cost to Non-Profit detailed below of each item provided by BWUCF. Initials _____

11. 20% Above Cost to Non Profit: BWUCF advises Client to set the "Reserve Bid" or "Starting Bid" 20% above the below stated "Cost to Non Profit" to ensure profit is received and realized by Client. Initials _____

12. Charity Travel Packages: Charity Travel Packages purchased at your fundraising event must be booked within one (1) year of the date of purchase and are non-refundable. If a Travel Package sells at your event, all the buyers' accurate information must be provided with payment to BWUCF so the travel documents can be prepared and shipped promptly to the buyer. The travel documents will be provided directly to the winning bidder with 45 days after BWU receives payment. Timely payment will ensure that your guests receive their Travel Packages soon after your event. It is incumbent upon "Client" to ensure accurate contact information is received as well as payment is sent to BWUCF within the time constraints detailed in Section. It is the clients responsibility to report the correct contact information. BWUCF will immediately attempt to contact and book said Charity Travel Package. The following information is required for each travel package sold:
